Exploring the Renaissance 2020: An International Conference

March 26-28, 2020

Southern Methodist University
Dallas, TX

Honthorst, Apollo and Diana, 1628

The South-Central Renaissance Conference (est. 1951) is an interdisciplinary association of Renaissance scholars, both domestic and international. SCRC takes pride in being one of the oldest and friendliest Renaissance conferences in North America.

Invited Speakers

William B. Hunter Lecturer:

Rebecca Olson, Oregon State University

Louis L. Martz Lecturer:

Ayesha Ramachandran, Yale University

Keynote Lecturer:

Elizabeth Skerpan-Wheeler, Texas State University

Call for Papers

SCRC welcomes 15- to 20-minute papers on all aspects of Renaissance studies (music, art history, history, literature, language, philosophy, science, religion). Transatlantic, trans-European, and interdisciplinary approaches are particularly welcome.

Submissions

To apply, submit an abstract of 300-350 words. Submit your abstract through the abstract submission form at <https://sites.psu.edu/scrc>.

Deadline: December 16, 2019

To propose a special session, email the program chair by November 1, 2019. Presenters for accepted panels must post abstracts by December 31.

An SCRC membership (purchasable online and on site) is required to attend. Papers cannot be read in absentia.

Graduate students who are presenting at the conference are encouraged to apply for graduate travel fellowships ($400). Apply to the program chair by e-mail, attaching the complete text of a paper, by January 31, 2020.

Undergraduates must e-mail the complete text of their papers, with a faculty letter of recommendation, to the program chair by December 16, 2019.

We encourage speakers to submit developed versions of their papers to SCRC's fully refereed, independent scholarly journal, Explorations in Renaissance Culture.

Shorter papers (up to 3,000 words) are invited for submission to SCRC's online newsletter, Discoveries. (Visit these journals through the SCRC website.)

Information about submissions and local arrangements will be available on the SCRC website:
