

Call for Papers

We welcome proposals for 20-minute papers to be read in person in Savannah.
Submit 300- to 500-word abstracts before December 15, 2023 at southcentralrenaissanceconference.org

To propose a special session, email the program chair by November 1, 2023; final abstracts due December 15.

Participants must have a current SCRC membership to participate in the conference.

Graduate students who are presenting at the conference are encouraged to apply for a Graduate Travel Award.
Apply to the program chair by e-mail, attaching the complete text of a paper, by January 31, 2024. For the first time, advanced undergraduates may apply for the new Joan Faust Travel Award.

Advanced undergraduates interested in reading a paper at the conference must e-mail the complete text of their papers, with a faculty letter of recommendation, to the program chair by December 15, 2023. Undergraduates must e-mail the complete text of their papers, with a faculty letter of recommendation, to the program chair by December 15, 2023.

The SCRC thanks its local academic host, Georgia Southern University at Savannah.

southcentralrenaissanceconference.org

Program Chair: Andrew Fleck, University of Texas, El Paso
ajfleck@utep.edu

Local Host: Mary Villeponteaux, Georgia Southern University
mvilleponteaux@georgiasouthern.edu

William B. Hunter Lecture

Kay Edwards
University of South Carolina

Louis L. Martz Lecture

TBA

Keynote Lecture

Jemma Field
Yale Center for British Art

We encourage panelists to submit developed versions of their papers to SCRC's fully refereed, independent scholarly journal, Explorations in Renaissance Culture.

April 4-6, 2024

Savannah, Georgia

South Central Renaissance Conference

In collaboration with the New College Conference on Medieval and Renaissance Studies